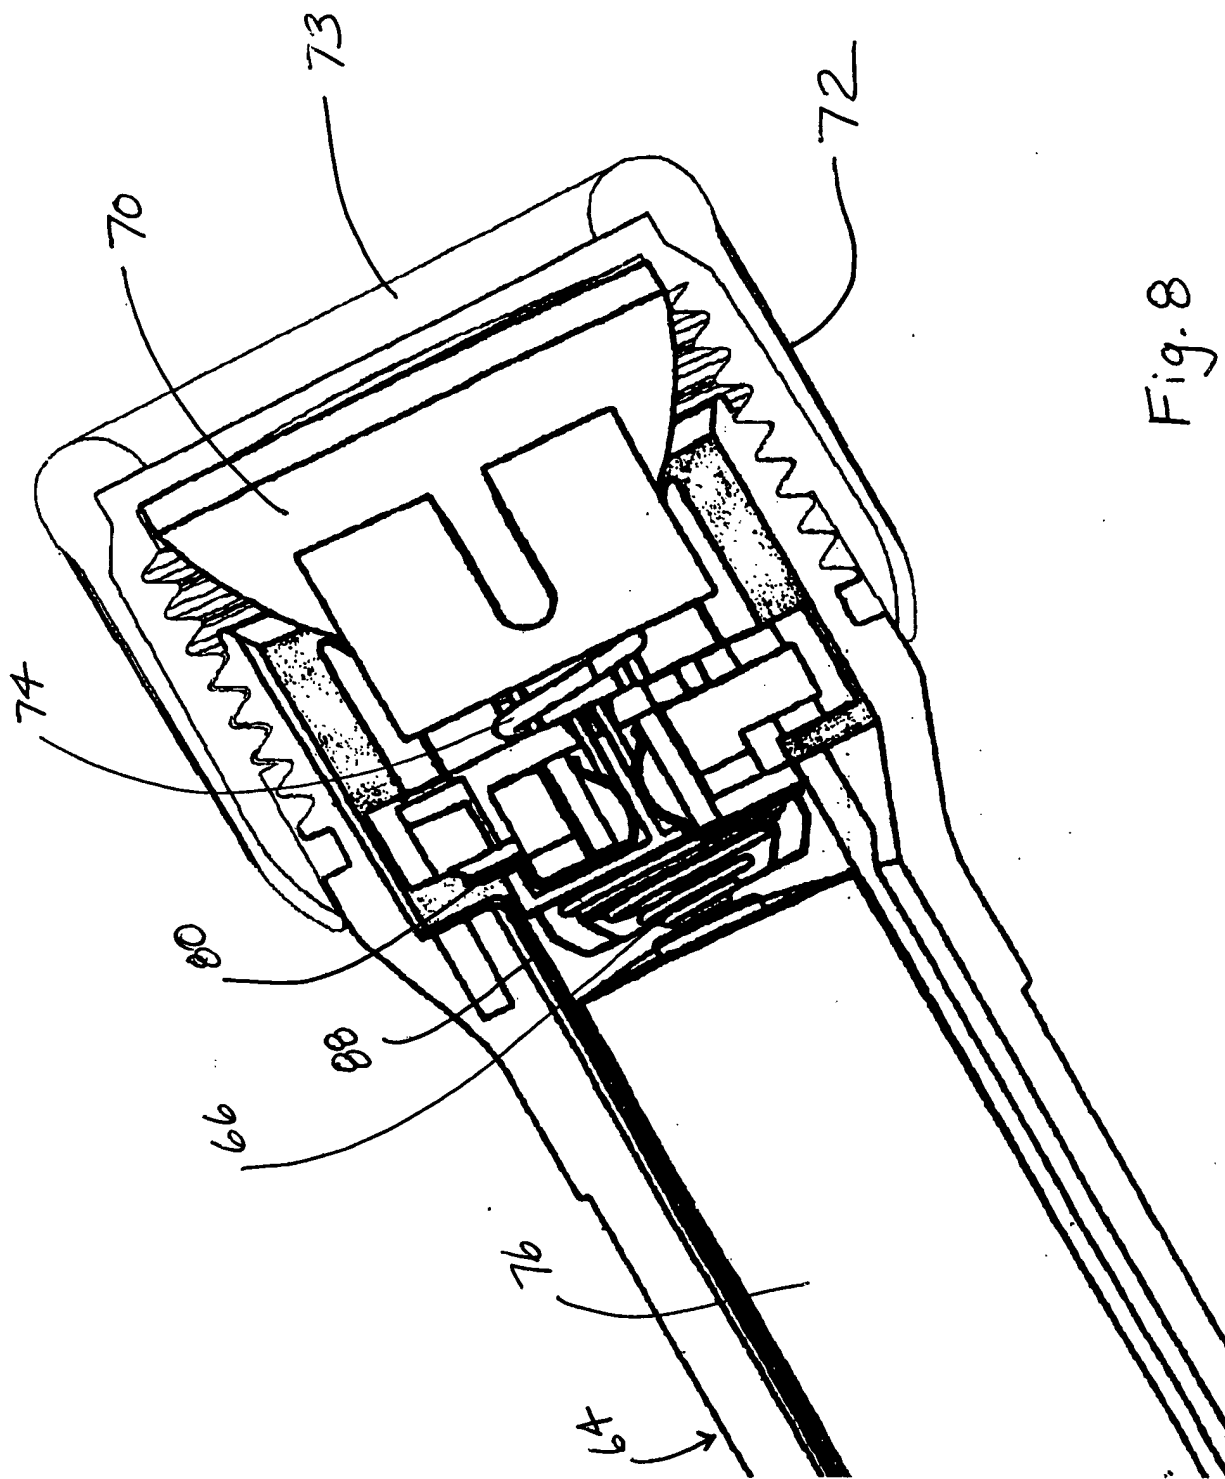

Fig. 8

Fig. 9 is a perspective view of the cable assembly 60. It shows the cable 66, the cable jacket 68, and the cable braid 70. The cable jacket 68 is shown as a separate component, likely a protective sheath, and the cable braid 70 is shown as a separate component, likely a braided shield or reinforcement. The cable 66 is shown as a bundle of conductors or fibers, and the cable jacket 68 is shown as a protective layer around the cable 66. The cable braid 70 is shown as a braided layer around the cable 66.
